

Sardis: a Breathless Church for Life (Rev 3:1-6)

Preached Sunday, 08/05/18

The Church of Sardis was supposed to be alive and is actually still dead with only a few walking in white robes. It seems to correspond to the Protestant Mainline Denominations, who supposedly escaped the Roman Catholic errors but still did not know the work of the Holy Spirit. The “Reformation Church” period in church history can be marked by the Reformation (1517) and the “Second Pentecost” of the Moravian Brethren in 1727.
