

Philadelphia: a Borderless Church for Missions (Rev 3:7-13)

Preached Sunday, 08/12/18

The Church of Philadelphia was known for brethren love and devoted to missions. It can be identified as the Evangelical Church, born at the “Second Pentecost” of the Moravian Brethren in 1727, lasting till the end of the modern times in 1990. This Church emphasizes spiritual regeneration, missions, and premillennial prophecy. To them Jesus promised Pretribulational rapture.
